

COLPOX Gynecological reporting software code 316010

Colpox is a specialized software for the needs of Gynecology. It manages patient records, medical history sheets and hysteroscopy and colposcopy exams.

Each exam is associated with digital images on which it is possible to draw graphic elements to highlight interesting details.

It includes an assisted reporting template with text and images, a template for free reporting with photos and a template for inserting photographs only.

Possibility of "full screen" display. Possibility of choosing the quantity of images to be associated with the report

Possibility of acquisition of external files.

Possibility of exporting of the clinical record complete with images and videos.

It can be used with the CENTREL DMC 130 digital camera or DVM9 video module via USB connection or with other analog sources with S-Video or Composite video output via a USB analog to digital signal converter.

Supplied on a USB key containing the activation code, compatible with Windows 7-8-10.

Minimum recommended requirements of the computer/laptop: Intel CPU or Amd 2 Ghz, Ram 3Gb, Hard Disk 500 Gb, nr. 3 USB ports (4 if pedal is used), ATI HD graphics card or Geforce Nvidia 512 Mb.

Accessories: USB pedal (code 516006) for photos and movies.