

DAHLHAUSEN®

Lotul 63

Artificial Noses Type 302

Artificial Noses Type 302, without vent, for patients with spontaneous breathing through an endotracheal or tracheostomy tube, in clinics or at home. Does not conduct electricity.

|                                                                    |                                                                                                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Application area:                                           | Adult                                                                                                           |
| Style:                                                      | With vent, with oxygen connection                                                                               |
| Moisture loss (heat and moisture exchanger at Vt = 250 ml): | 9 mg/l                                                                                                          |
| Moisture loss (heat and moisture exchanger at Vt = 500 ml): | 13,2 mg/l                                                                                                       |
| Internal volume:                                            | 17 ml                                                                                                           |
| Length:                                                     | 29 mm                                                                                                           |
| Max. tidal volume :                                         | 1.000 ml                                                                                                        |
| Material:                                                   | Casing: PP; lid: TPE; foam: PE/Polyester foam (composition: polyurethane polymer) with calcium chloride coating |
| Sterile:                                                    | No                                                                                                              |

Art.no.

4300905706

Product type

50 pcs/pck