CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that:

Mr. Nicolae Arnaud, of Moldovan nationality, born on 15/02/1983 in Telenești, Moldova, has been enrolled as a regular student in the 2017-2018 academic year at the College of Europe, Natolin (Warsaw) Campus, and has attended 100% of the following elective non-assessed Simulation Game:

International Negotiations, delivered by Professor Alain Lempereur.

Workshops and Simulation Games are an integral part of the European Interdisciplinary Studies (EIS) academic programme. They equip students with specific skills and allow for a more in-depth analysis of subjects which are covered from a wider perspective in other courses.

The EIS academic programme is a one-year long curriculum dispensed by the College of Europe, Natolin. Upon successful completion, its graduates are awarded the Master of Arts in European Interdisciplinary Studies diploma at the Advanced Academic Master qualification level.

The present document certifies solely the attendance of the student to the above-mentioned part of the EIS academic programme and in no case does it replace the degree that is awarded to students who successfully conclude their academic obligations at the College of Europe, Natolin.
