1. Warranty term

The products sold by HENAN TONG-DA CABLE Co are warranted against any manufacture defects over the period stated in the invoice, which runs from the invoice date, in accordance with the manufacturer's general sale terms.

2. Warranty terms

- A) The Client indicated on the fiscal invoice must present the proof of purchase of the product and the warranty certificate, together with the defective product and the original package.
- B) HENAN TONG-DA CABLE Co shall check the product and the declared nonconformity together with the manufacturer. If such nonconformity proves to be a manufacture defect, and not a nonconformity occurred due to the fault of the Client or the person who performed the installation without following the assembly and storage instructions, the repairing or replacement (whenever the repair is not possible) of the product shall be accepted within the warranty period.
- C) In order to enjoy the warranty, the products must be installed by an authorized person, who shall observe under sole responsibility the assembly instructions, the applicable rules and regulation, and shall perform this operation in a correct and professional manner, or by a person agreed upon by the Supplier.
- D) The warranty covers the repair and replacement of the parts and/or subsets acknowledged by us as showing a manufacture defect.
- E) The seller shall, within the warranty term, replace the product or refund the equivalent value thereof, where the product cannot be repaired, the downtime due to the intrinsic defects exceeds 10% of the warranty term, or the product broke down at least three time in the first half of the warranty term.

3. Warranty cancellation cases

- A) The Client fails to present the fiscal invoice and warranty certificate.
- B) The warranty period has expired.
- C) The products cannot be identified by HENAN TONG-DA CABLE Co as sold and stated in the invoice.
- D) An unauthorized change of the technical specifications.
- E) Defects of the product caused by its improper use, in breach of the instructions for use, or by other sources, by its hitting or improper storage.
- F) Defects of the products caused by their installation, repairing or reinstallation by unskilled and/or unauthorized staff.
- G) Defects of the products caused during the transportation, if these were sold under EXW conditions.
- H) Defects of the products caused by loss or vandalism.
- I) Defects of the products caused by natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, lightning, etc.
- J) The operation of the equipment with frequent interruptions, at inadequate pressures, temperatures, supply voltages, improper gases or liquids, excessive humidity, location in areas with parasitic electromagnetic disturbances, or in other conditions than those indicated under the characteristics indicated on its accompanying label, technical data sheet or under the use and maintenance instructions, and also for any other purpose than that provided for by the manufacturer, shall entail the automatic cancellation of the warranty.
