

Water bath

for histological slides

WB2800

The Water Bath WB 2800 is a simple, economical tissue flotation bath.

Designed to lay sections of histological samples.

The Teflon coating allows easy cleaning.

The instrument is provided with a control panel to set and monitor the desired water temperature, overheating protection.

The water temperature is microprocessor controlled.

Water bath

for histological samples

Technical features

Temperature ranges
from ambient ~ 75°C increments of 1°C
Tank capacity: 2 liters

Power Details
Nominal current: 220V ~ 50Hz or 110V ~ 60Hz
Power consumption: 300W/A

Size and weight
Width: 328 mm
Depth : 300 mm
Height: 96 mm
Weight: 2,4 kg

Certifications
CE-IVD

For up-to-date features, please refer to the instrument data sheet.
Technical specifications are subject to change without notice.

Histo-Line Laboratories s.r.l.

Viale G. di Vittorio, 30 | 20048 Pantigliate (MI) ITALY
Phone +39 0255230061 | Fax +39 0255213764
histoline@histoline.com | www.histoline.com

Customer Service

Histo-Line offers a complete support
Do you need assistance?

Support products specialist@histoline.com
Support equipments techservice@histoline.com

