

Recommendation Letter

October 1, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of the National Office of Vine and Wine, I am pleased to recommend Just Digital as a reliable and professional partner in marketing and communication. Over the past two years, we have collaborated with Just Digital, and they have consistently demonstrated their expertise, creativity, and efficiency.

Just Digital has played a crucial role in the success of our key initiatives, including the promotion of National Wine Day and other significant events. They have shown a strong ability to plan and execute social media strategies, advertising campaigns, and communication materials that effectively engage our audience. Their work has greatly enhanced the visibility of the Wine of Moldova brand.

What distinguishes Just Digital is its capacity to integrate modern digital tools with a deep understanding of brand development, allowing us to reach our target audiences across various platforms. Their timely and proactive approach, combined with close attention to detail, has significantly strengthened our brand locally.

Based on our successful collaboration, I confidently recommend Just Digital for any marketing, branding, or communication projects. Their professionalism, creativity, and dedication make them a valuable partner.

Sincerely,

Iamandi Ștefan

Director of the National Office of Vine and Wine
