

FOOD HALL MONTOWNIA
Gdańsk
November 6, 2023

Assumptions

The aim of the event at the Food Hall Montownia in Gdańsk is to present Moldovan wines and the history and specificity of Moldovan winemaking to a wide audience. It has be a presentation of various wine producers, which will show the diversity of wine regions of Moldova, the impact of geographical location on wine, as well as micro and macro climate factors. During the tasting, issues of Moldova's wine traditions over the years, starting from ancient times, will also be discussed. Local endemic grape variates, their history, genesis and taste characteristics will also be discussed.

Date: November 6, 2023

Location: Gdansk, Food Hall Montownia

Number of guests : 80

Date: 6/11/2023

Language: Polish

Objective of the event

Promotion of Moldovan winemaking and wine producers who are present on the Polish market.

Vineyards that will be presented during the event:

1. Cricova (Blanc de Noirs, sparkling)
2. Radacini (Chardonnay)
3. Fautor (310 Chardonnay Feteasca Regala)
4. Doina Vin (Feteasca Neagra)
5. Carlevana (Merlotage)
6. Divus (Cabernet-Sauvignon 2019)
7. Purcari (Rara Neagra Nocturne)
8. Novak (Florica, Sauvignon Blanc)

Event Summary

During the presentation, participants learned about 8 different wineries from Moldova, their history, and geographical factors that affect wine production in this country. The presentation began with sparkling wine from Cricova, then we discussed white wines, with a presentation of endemic white varieties, and finished with red wines. During the two-hour meeting, we tasted 8 different wines, showing the best possible different styles of wines and producers.

