Client Reviews

HEAVSTY HW618 Driving Type Thermoplastic ...

On-time delivery and very good after-sales service, good engine quality, and easy to use. But on the other hand, need to be modified a little for better performance, the air compressor needs higher power and the air reservoir needs to reduce the volume so it could work continuously for a long time also should consider making everything in English. Overall, a good machine with this price and really good after-sales service.

HEAVSTY HW90-3A China manufacture High P...

This machine has special and highly efficient in removing marks, with good weather and condition, it can move up to 1-200m of marks per working hour, and the most special thing it's this removal technology can protect the worker health, less pollution, less noise, easy to use and maintenance. Should consider modifying the actuator for bigger between-wheels distance (with respect to the width), it will help control the actuator more easily. Overall, this technology has nothing bad to say about it, high efficiency, easy to use and maintain, good after-sales services, and on-time delivery.
