To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this recommendation for Pumba Creative Studio, with whom the International Organization for Migration (IOM) in Moldova had the opportunity to collaborate on several key projects. Over the course of our partnership, Pumba Creative Studio produced four exceptional videos, contributing significantly to our communication and outreach efforts.

The projects they contributed to included:

1. A social campaign empowering women to pursue careers in law enforcement, specifically in the Police.
2. An educational animation explaining the concept of Community Policing in an engaging and accessible manner.
3. A video showcasing technical acquisitions, under a project aimed at strengthening local law enforcement capabilities.
4. A video depicting the activities of the police from the perspective of children, offering a fresh and inspiring viewpoint.

Throughout the collaboration, Pumba Creative Studio demonstrated outstanding patience and responsiveness to all our requests. Whether it was accommodating feedback or adapting to shifting project requirements, they remained flexible and solution oriented. Their creativity and innovative approach significantly elevated the quality of the final products, ensuring that each video effectively conveyed the intended messages to our target audiences.

Moreover, Pumba Creative Studio worked seamlessly with a variety of national stakeholders involved in these projects. Their professionalism and collaborative approach ensured that all video content was approved by relevant parties, and they consistently met deadlines and expectations with ease.

We are very satisfied with the work Pumba Creative Studio delivered and are happy to recommend them for any future collaborations. Their creativity, flexibility, and professionalism make them an excellent partner for any organization seeking high-quality video production services.

Sincerely,

Daniel Macari
