KONTROLER Nr. 1

Za zgodność z oryginałem

1. Upon receipt of the Products, the Ordering Party is obligated to check their compliance with the order in terms of quality and quantity. The Ordering Party is obligated to check in particular: the quality, quantity, and type of the Products delivered.
2. If the Ordering Party detects quality or quantity defects in the Products, the Ordering Party is obligated to prepare a written complaint report with photographic documentation of the defects and submit it to the Supplier.
3. Failure by the Ordering Party to report quality or quantity defects in the Products, which can be identified with due diligence based on organoleptic tests, in the form of a report referred to in paragraph 2, within 2 business days from the date of receipt of the Products by the Ordering Party, releases the Supplier from liability for non-performance or improper performance of the obligation resulting from such defects. The Supplier must review the complaint within 21 business days from the date of receipt of the complaint report and notify the Ordering Party of its decision within that time. If the Supplier deems the complaint justified, it will, at its discretion, replace the Products with defect-free ones or correct the VAT invoice in this regard, reducing the amount due by the value of the shortage or defective Products.
