

Recommendation Letter

With this recommendation letter, we would like to mention that we had a successful collaboration with Moldauditing in 2022. Moldauditing performed the agreed-upon verification procedures for the audit of the project NanoMedTwin, Programme : HORIZON 2020.

The company has a wide portfolio, a lot of experience, qualified and skilled team members and is oriented to bring their professional services in various types of audits and consultancy.

We have the pleasure to recommend Moldauditing and we consider this company as a professional one in the field.
