Compliance with technical parameters

We hereby confirm that the equipment offered by Medexcom-Teh SRL, namely Digital Radiografic System (with vertical bucky stand), model – INNOVISION EXII / manufacturer – DK MEDICAL SYSTEMS CO., LTD (REPUBLIC OF KOREA), fully complies with the medical and technical requirements specified in the tender documentation and the Schedule of Requirements.

To substantiate the compliance of the proposed technical parameters, we have provided official manufacturer information and technical manuals as part of our Bid submission. The evidence supporting each required parameter is contained in the technical documentation files submitted together with the Bid, namely Technical Documents I–VII. These documents represent official technical materials issued by the manufacturer (e.g., datasheets, brochures, user manuals, system configuration sheets, and other official technical descriptions), and they serve as the primary proof that the offered equipment meets the requested specifications.

We confirm that no deviations affecting compliance with mandatory medical and technical requirements have been introduced, and that the offered configuration corresponds to the specifications requested by the Purchaser
