4.0 - GENERAL

- 5.1) Use of Motorola Solutions software products and software assurance is covered by the terms and conditions of our current End User Licence Agreement (EULA).
- 5.2) Software assurances are non-transferable across Motorola Solutions software products, and across users or organisations.
- 5.3) Software support is limited to the two latest versions of VideoManager. Organisations with older versions of VideoManager will be prompted to upgrade to continue receiving software support as part of their software assurance cover.
- 5.4) To protect customer data confidentiality, Motorola Solutions Ltd and its agents do not process, recover or store any information recorded by customer owned devices. Therefore Motorola Solutions cannot offer services for recovering data on damaged or inoperative devices and storage hardware.
- 5.5) Motorola Solutions Ltd retains the right to change and alter software assurance conditions. Changes made after the purchase of software products or extended software assurance will not affect the original terms and conditions agreed at the time of purchase. Notice shall be given, where possible, if software assurance terms and conditions change.
- 5.6) Motorola Solutions will endeavour to send a reminder about the expiry of software assurance between six and two months prior to the expiration date. However, Motorola Solutions and its agents are not liable for any costs incurred as a result of expired software assurance.
- 5.7) Upon the date of expiration of software assurance, and where payment for continued support has not been received, a termination notice will be sent to the main point-of-contact. At the same time, a limited 30 day grace period will begin before software assurance support is terminated.
- 5.8) Unless otherwise stated, extended software assurance cover purchased at a later date shall be delivered under the then terms and conditions. Please request the latest version of this document if you wish to view the terms and conditions.
