

HANDCUFFS

The product consists of:

- chain with 2 links, professional;
- key with opening: 2 pcs.
- handcuff arm (one for the right hand and one for the left hand): 2 bracelets.

Basic features:

Material: nickel-plated steel resistant to wear and corrosion according to NIJ-0307.01 standard;

- ensures the hardness level, Rockwell B HRB-95 level;

Weight 325 gr.;

- all parts are made of metal.

Construction details:

- independent arms with the possibility of rotation, connected by a chain;
- riveted fixing points;
- length: 240 mm;
- the possibility of locking the arms of the handcuffs;
- folding thickness: 21 mm.;

The mechanical device made of 2 steel bracelets joined by a chain that grips the wrist partially or completely limiting the person's actions. who was handcuffed. The metal bracelets are made up of 2 parts, one of which is movable and which closes with a key. The construction and surface finish exclude defects which may cause injury to the user or bystanders during normal use.

Their construction not allow opening by other means and cannot be broken.

Manufactured in accordance with international health and safety rules;

The product is accompanied by:

- the certificate of conformity or quality or another document confirming the conformity or quality of the product.

Validity period – min 3 years

- Packaging is done in boxes to ensure that the characteristics and safety of the transport and handling are kept in accordance with the rules in force

Optional : Handcuffs belt holder

The products complies with the requirements of the EU directives

