

Declaration Letter

We, VivaChek Biotech (Hangzhou) Co., Ltd, with a registered address in Level 2, Block 2, 146 East Chaofeng Rd, Yuhang Economy Development Zone, Hangzhou, Zhejiang 311100, China, hereby state that:

Product concerned: VivaDiag™ POCT Multifunction Meter (Model: VIM220H) and its matched test kits

1) For blood-based test kits used with the VivaDiag™ POCT Multifunction Meter (Model: VIM220H), the blood samples may be heparinized by manual mixing with the reagent in the accompanying tube/container. This method has been verified by the manufacturer to meet testing requirements, and no centrifugation is required after mixing.

2) The provided thermal printer has been verified to be compatible with the VIM220H analyzer and operates properly via Bluetooth connection. This declaration applies only to the system configuration verified by the manufacturer.

3) The VIM220H analyzer can be used in many areas, such as hospitals, medical centers, clinics, pharmacies, laboratories, and ambulances at the pre-hospital stage, etc.

4) The VIM220H analyzer will be equipped with a carrying case.

Case (useful interior space): 145 × 95 × 80 mm;

Case (external dimensions): 165 × 155 × 100 mm with separate sections, zipper, handle, and strap.

Material: Rigid ABS with textile outer shell, splash-proof.

Color and logo: at the customer's choice.
