

HEAD PROTECTIVE

Workers working in high-susceptible environments must protect their skull and intracranial structures.

Operating room workers are advised to use head protectors against long-term exposure.

It will provide you maximum protection with its ergonomic structure and models that can be applied to every head.

It is produced from 0.35mm Pb lead material.

If desired, 0.50mm Pb can be produced.