INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE: Serve the amount of food (see table for guidance) into a feeding bowl. Remember that your dog must always have plenty of cool, clean water easily available. Take into account that the amounts shown in the guidance table will vary depending on the weight, physical activity level, etc., and there is also a variable component related to the individuality of each animal. If any change in feeding is made, it must be gradual, over 4 or 5 days, to avoid the appearance of intestinal disorders.

N.B.: Keep the container tightly closed in a cool, dry place distant from floor and ensuring that is away from direct sunlight.
