MANUFACTURER'S AUTHORIZATION

To Whom It May Concern:

Barracuda Networks, Inc. ("Barracuda") is an official producer of network security and data storage products. Its production facilities are in San Jose, California, United States.

Barracuda hereby confirms that there is a valid reseller agreement in place between BTS Pro SRL, with its principal place of business at 6V, Ion Creanga Street, Chisinau, MD-2069, Republic of Moldova ("Partner") and Barracuda. The Partner is an active and authorized Barracuda reseller that may quote rates to bid, negotiate and conclude the contract with you against your tender for the Barracuda goods.

We hereby confirm that, in case the bidding results in a contract between you and the Partner, the Barracuda products will come with our standard warranty.

This letter expires upon termination of the Agreement.

Best Regards,
