

Certificate of Conformity, Product Quality, and Product Origin

Nasco Healthcare is a worldwide leader in the manufacture of medical training simulators with a history of over 75 years producing the finest quality products. Our training simulators are sold to the world's leading universities, teaching hospitals, and emergency response organizations in over 180 countries on six continents. Nasco Healthcare manufactures all products to the highest quality ISO and other international standards. Every Nasco Healthcare product is tested and inspected before leaving the plant. A rigorous quality-checking program is conducted daily to ensure you receive the highest quality products. Only the highest quality premium raw materials are used in the production of our products. All products sold by Nasco Healthcare are new, first production products. Nasco Healthcare does not sell used products. Our Life/form® and Simulaids brand products are 100% manufactured at our plants in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, U.S.A., and Saugerties, New York, U.S.A. Our products are nontoxic and contain no hazardous materials. Nasco Healthcare training products are used for medical training only and are not used on humans or animals as medical devices and are not ingested by humans or animals. Nasco is the only company in the industry offering a full 5-year warranty on all Life/form® brand products. Simulaids brand products carry a full 3-year warranty, the second longest warranty in the industry (some exceptions apply).
